

International Archaeology Weekend at the Bowers Museum: Exploring our Past with Archaeology

Sponsored by AIA-Orange County Society, American Research Center in Egypt-Orange County Chapter, American Schools of Oriental Research, Bowers Museum, and Mission Viejo Library.

Saturday, October 17, 2015 - 12:30 – 5:00 • Sunday, October 18, 2015 1:30 - 5:00

Location:

Bowers Museum
2002 N Main St
Santa Ana, CA 92706

October 17, 2015, Saturday, International Archaeology Day in collaboration with ASOR, ARCE, the Mission Viejo Library and Bowers Museum. Arrive early to view the exhibitions, have lunch in Tangata Restaurant which opens at 11:00, or visit activities at the Kidseum next door.

“Exploring our Past with Archaeology”, begins at 12:30 in the Norma Kershaw Auditorium of the Bowers Museum.

Archaeology in Peril

by Dr. Andrew Vaughn of ASOR

Introduced by Norma Kershaw of AIA and Bowers Museum. A dramatic lecture illustrating the current situation as ISIL wreaks havoc on the sites and artifacts of our heritage in Syria, Iraq, and Yemen.

Egypt's New Kingdom and Nubia

by W. Benson Harer, M. D. of ARCE.

Introduced by Eva Kirsch, President of ARCE. Fascinating new discoveries of mummies in the Sudan and the gripping events as Egypt seeks control of the gold and riches of Nubia.

The Future of the Past

by Dr. Tom Levy of UCSD

Introduced by Ruth DeNault, President of AIA-Orange County Society. Balloon photography in Israel-Palestine, and an update on significant excavations in Jordan, Israel, and Cyprus. Plus Dr. Levy will share recent work at Delphi, Greece and Cyber Archaeology at work. Brady Liss, a UCSD graduate student will share an exciting field experience and show how the latest scientific tools are used onsite.

After a brief time for questions from the audience, guests will enjoy a complimentary wine and cheese reception.

Dr. Zahi Hawass, noted Director of Egyptology, will give a presentation on Sunday, October 18th at 1:30 in the Norma Kershaw Auditorium.

AIA-OC has reserved a block of up to 50 seats in the auditorium for Saturday. Please be in contact with Ruth DeNault rdenault@denaults.com or Lianne Oakes loakes6061@aol.com for reservations. Send in your reservations a.s.a.p. or sign up at our first lecture on September 27th.

This promises to be an exciting weekend for members and guests. We hope to enroll new members in our Society at this event.

October 17th program attendance only _____ members @ $15 _____ general public @ $25

October 17th and 18th attendance _____ members @ $50 _____ general public @ $75

October 18th program attendance only _____ members @ $35 _____ general public @ $50

Name(s): _____

Tel: _____ E-Mail: _____

AIA Member? YES NO No, but want to join.

Payment Enclosed: Check Cash Amount: $ _____

Credit Card: MC/VISA/AMEX _____ EXP DATE: _____ CODE: _____

• Proceeds benefit AIA-OC Educational Programs. • Tickets are non-refundable.